Finding Literature Criticism In Gale Literature Resource Center
Find the CCTC Electronic Library

- myCCTC – Library tab
  https://mycctc.cctech.edu

- LibGuides
  http://cctech.libguides.com

- College website – Library web page
  http://www.cctech.edu/resources/library

- D2L – My Home Page
  (D2L is on the Student tab of myCCTC)

- Off-campus access is available with EZproxy login.
  Enter your myCCTC username and password to view the collection.
Find Literature Resource Center

- On the Library Tab of myCCTC or on CCTC LibGuides
  Click on Databases AtoZ, next click on the letter L and select Literature Resource Center

- On the College website
  Click on Library Resources, next click on Databases AtoZ, next select L, and select Literature Resource Center
Using the Advanced Search Feature

1. Click on the Advanced link
2. Enter the title of the short story beside Name of Work
3. Enter the name of the author beside Person By or About
4. Click on the search button
What is literature criticism?

“If the thought of engaging in literary criticism intimidates you, think of it instead as adding your voice to those of others who have read the same work of literature and want to talk about it” (Delbanco and Cheuse 1566).

Criticism is a specific type of writing and is identified in the Content Types box as Literature Criticism.
Selecting Literature Criticism

After you conduct your search, look closely at the Contents Types box on the right of your screen.

Notice the highlighted term, Literature Criticism (52).

You will need to select content from this type.

When in doubt about your assignment, ask your instructor for clarification.
Contact CCTC Library

Main Campus Library Information
Monday—Thursday, 8:00 a.m. —9:00 p.m.
Closed Friday—Sunday
    Phone—(803) 778-6647
    Email—library@cctech.edu
    Text—(803) 610-2557
Self-guided assistance—http://cctech.libguides.com/researchassistance
Works Cited